Brief History

Our client strongly believes that his partner is having an extra marital affair with a work colleague. Her habits have changed and her behaviour within the relationship is distant along with her being guarded around her phone.

Intentions

To perform surveillance on our client's wife via directed surveillance. Should our subject meet with the believed third party male we are to switch subjects to him and house him to gain his identity.

Summary of Operations

Tuesday 2nd November 2021

A planned deployment started at the home address of Charlotte Smith – 23 Nottingham Street, Nottingham, NG1 1NG where she was recorded exiting alone and walking to her car.

Charlotte then drove to a nearby McDonalds – NG2 2NG and met with James Bloggs. Charlotte had a drink ready for his arrival. Here the two kissed and sat briefly before departing in their own respective vehicles.

Both Charlotte and James were followed via mobile surveillance to Wollaton Park – NG3 3NG. At this location the subjects changed their clothing to suit the weather and went for a walk within the park towards the café. After purchasing hot drinks at the café, the pair moved to a nearby bench and shared more kisses.

From here the pair moved back to their vehicles and shared another kiss and embrace before departing in their separate vehicles to a nearby pub, Nottingham Arms – NG4 4NG. Within the pub the pair had a meal together, no alcohol was consumed.

Once finished the pair exited to their vehicles and said their goodbyes with more kisses and embraces. The pair departed in their respective vehicles going in different directions. At this point in the surveillance period the main subject became James who was followed to a residential address – 123 Carlton Street, Nottingham, NG1 2NG. Open-source investigations place this as James' home address which evidences him further as James Bloggs. This was the last sighting of James and observations were closed here.

11:45 James walked away to the driver's side of his vehicle.

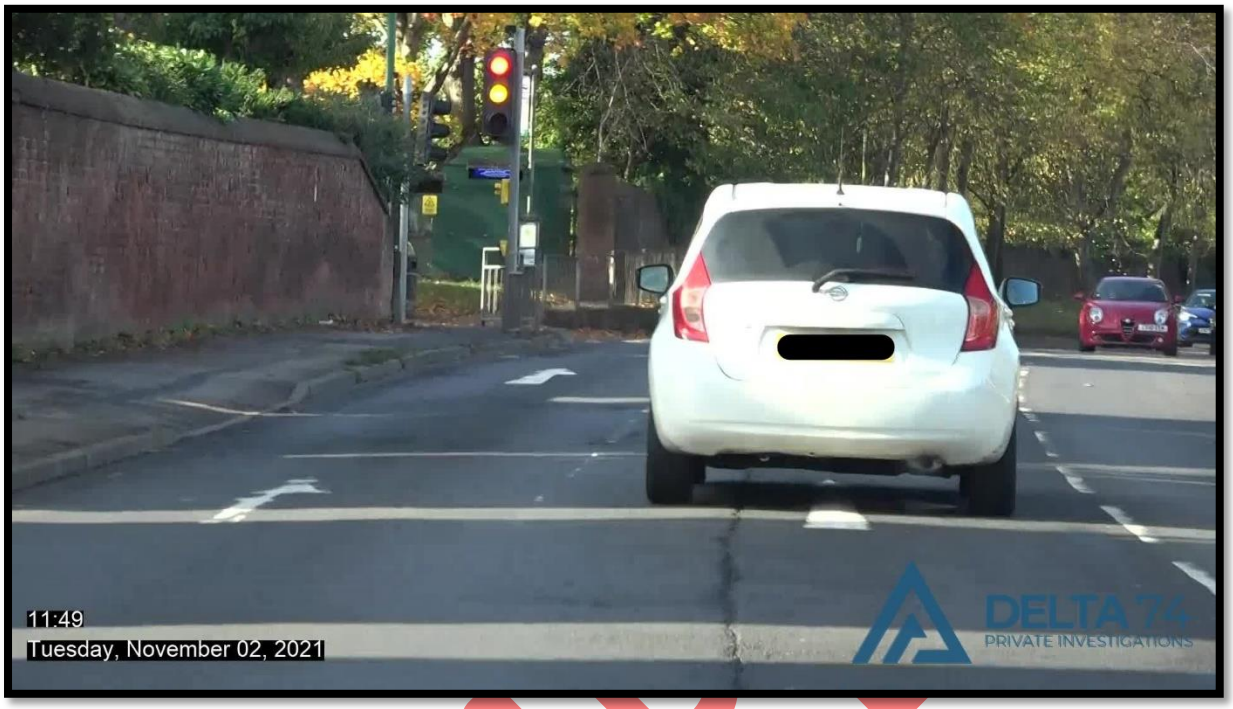

11:46 The pair departed and went in separate directions at this point. Here James became the main focus for the surveillance period.

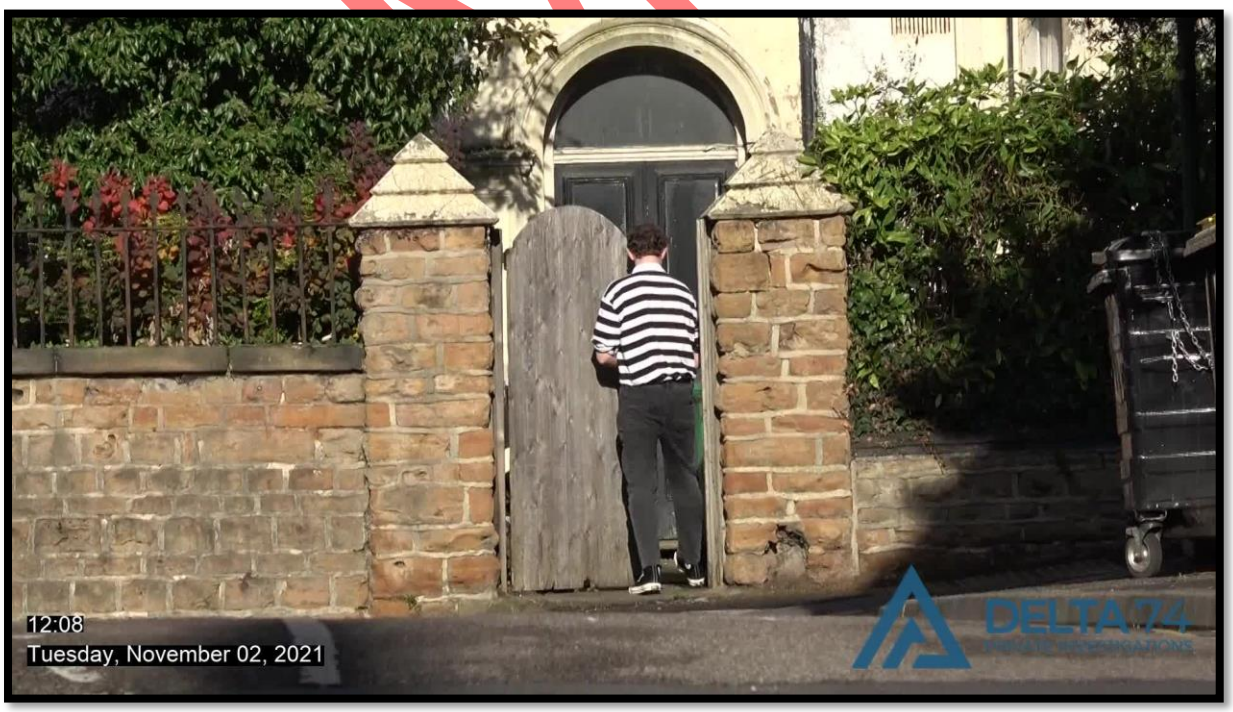

11:49 James was followed via mobile surveillance back towards Nottingham city centre

12:08 After parking in a side street and a brief walk James entered into a residential property which was evidenced via open-source information to be his home address, 123 Carlton Street, Nottingham, NG1 2NG.

12:08 Under instructions a closing shot was taken onto James' home address where observations were ceased with no further sightings of Charlotte or James.

Conclusion/Remarks

During observations it was recorded and evidenced that our subject of investigation Charlotte Smith was having an extra marital affair with her work colleague James Bloggs.

From body language and their interactions this relationship was not brand new and both subjects were comfortable with each other.

Following on from this surveillance period no further observations are recommended from our findings.

End of Report

The above stated is completely true to my belief.
